

PAUL EZEKIEL 'ZEKE' TURNER

In a relatively short time, Paul Ezekiel “Zeke” Turner has established himself as a visionary business leader with a social conscience.

As Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Mainstreet Property Group, he has pioneered efforts to set a higher standard for senior care. Under his leadership, Mainstreet has earned recognition for increasing revenue and creating jobs, as well as investing in the community in a difficult economy.

Before founding Mainstreet in 2002, Turner worked on Wall Street with Citigroup Corporate and Investment Banking (formerly Salomon Smith Barney). With Citigroup, he worked in the Latin America and Health Care groups in New York, and in Mergers/Acquisitions in São Paulo, Brazil.

Now living in Cicero, Ind., Turner is actively involved in his community. He and his wife serve on the board of the Indiana Family Institute, an organization dedicated to promoting stronger families in the state. He also served on the Cicero Economic Development Committee, and has worked with Habitat for Humanity, Married for Keeps, Athletes in Action, Campus Crusade for Christ International and Cicero Christian Church.

Professionally, Turner is or has been involved in the Urban Land Institute, Indiana Health Care Association, the National Investment Center for the Seniors Housing and Care Industry, the and the Hamilton North Chamber of Commerce.

He graduated cum laude from Taylor University in Upland, Ind., earning a B.A. degree in International Business and a B.S. degree Business Administration/Systems, with additional concentrations in finance and economics. He also played on Taylor’s basketball and football teams.

More recently, he completed courses at the Erickson School of Aging Studies at the University of Maryland, Baltimore County, studying finance/underwriting and real estate development.

Turner was born in Marion, Ind. in 1977. He and his wife, Milissa, have four children and live in Cicero, Ind. When time allows, Mr. Turner enjoys traveling with his family both locally and internationally. To date, he has visited 38 different countries around the world.
